2015 Annual Report

Thanks to all of you for supporting BMASER and our lifelong commitment to providing a home and loving care to neglected and abused farm animals! With your help and support, we were able to house, nourish, and care for 43 farm animals. BMASER was also able to welcome new animal arrivals this year, including 3 turkeys, 1 goat, 10 chickens and 1 guinea hen.

2015 was a year of happiness for those lives saved as well as sadness for those lives lost. We said goodbye to our gentle soul "Amir" and our handsome rooster "Arizona" as they crossed the Rainbow Bridge.

The table above summarizes BMASER's income and expenses during the period of January-December 2015.

This year BMASER received the generous donation of a brokerage account bequeathed by Greta B. Cheskin. Her generosity and love of the farm's mission provides a robust financial cushion heading into 2016. Please consider making a bequest to sustain our work in your will.

Loving Mother, Greta B. Cheskin

Greta's sunny attitude and support of our work will be sorely missed. Please view the plaque dedicated the cottage in her honor next time you visit.

Other new funding sources this year include America's Charities, Pfizer United Way Campaign, T. Rowe Price Matching Gift Program, Paypal Giving Fund, AmazonSmile.

Volunteers

BMASER feels blessed to have so many outstanding volunteers to foster our mission. So many adults and children alike have supported BMASER in many ways, from manual farm labor to staffing for events. We are grateful for all of the volunteers who helped with our exhibition events, farm tours, and provided food for our events.

We would first like to recognize our marvelous barn manager, Cate Principati. We could not run the sanctuary without you! Thanks also to our regular volunteers at BMASER this year:

Volunteers in the Spotlight

A huge and special thank you to our dedicated volunteers. Your tireless efforts have made BMASER a better place for its residents and visitors.

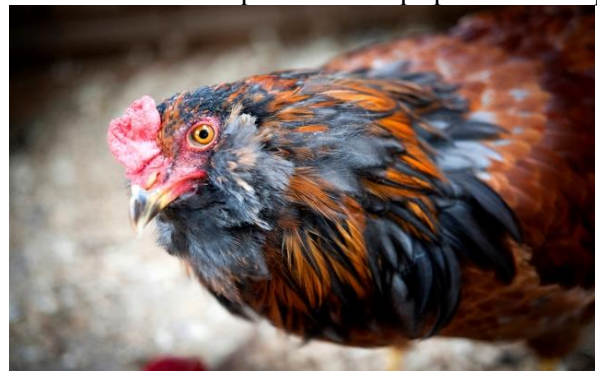

Volunteers highlighted for their special contributions this year are Zoe Katz and Cheryl Ursida.

Zoe was BMASER's very first volunteer (in 2012). Since then, she has helped with everything from animal care, tours, events...to anything that has been asked of her. She will be greatly missed when she heads off to college this Fall.

Zoe and Jenny

Cheryl has been a dedicated volunteer and tour guide who shows every day her incredible passion for all of our farm animals. One of her special projects was providing love and care to her beloved rooster, Arizona, pictured below. Cheryl is so dedicated to the cause, she humbly refused to have her picture take up space in our report.
